Branch. As it is likely that OTR will be requested to provide a large portion of these officers, I wish to alert you in advance that it will be extremely difficult for us to do so. Even with the assignment this fall of certain DDP officers to OTR as well as the return of several OTR officers, our instructor staff will still remain at minimum strength in terms of the workload that will have to be borne. We will, however, attempt to supply [REDACTED]. To do more, would impinge seriously on other high priority OTR responsibilities.
